here it is!

hey! look it over, give it a cheer!
the forum for '62 finally is here.
the year's all recorded for everyone to see,
the classes, the clubs, and each activity.

there are pictures of freshmen,
and sophomores too.
we even got shots of the whole senior crew.
from the proms and the practices concerts and plays, to games and the thuses
and graduating days.

by chance if your leaving don't feel too bad just keep in mind the fun that we've had.
now to help you remember the many years through we proudly present THE FORUM for 62

Studying the sciences is extremely important in the Space Age of today. Mount Vernon High School is fortunate to have an excellent science department. Here Bob Hitchcock performs an experiment in the chemistry laboratory.

Tom Withgott and Ginny Houbler are eagerly preparing for Homecoming.

MISS NANCY STILLWELL

Never ending patience and time to help and listen make this young woman the great teacher and friend that she is. Her interest and enthusiasm in the girls' physical education program have increased the participation in and enjoyment of gym. Many girls find her a source of great wisdom and understanding when they need someone to help them with their problems.

As adviser of the Girls' Athletic Association, she coaches undefeated varsity volleyball and basketball teams. Her intramural sports program boasts of many participants.

The Forum staff, wishing to thank Miss Nancy Stillwell for all the time devoted to Forum Shows and for all the time and interest shown to students, has dedicated this 1962 Forum to her.

Steve Carter and Linda Roesler dedicate the 1962 Forum to Miss Nancy Stillwell at the 1962 Forum Show.

we salute you, miss stillwell

Miss Stillwell is seated in her pretty white convertible with a number of the friends which she has made through her work.

MOUNT VERNON HIGH SCHOOL

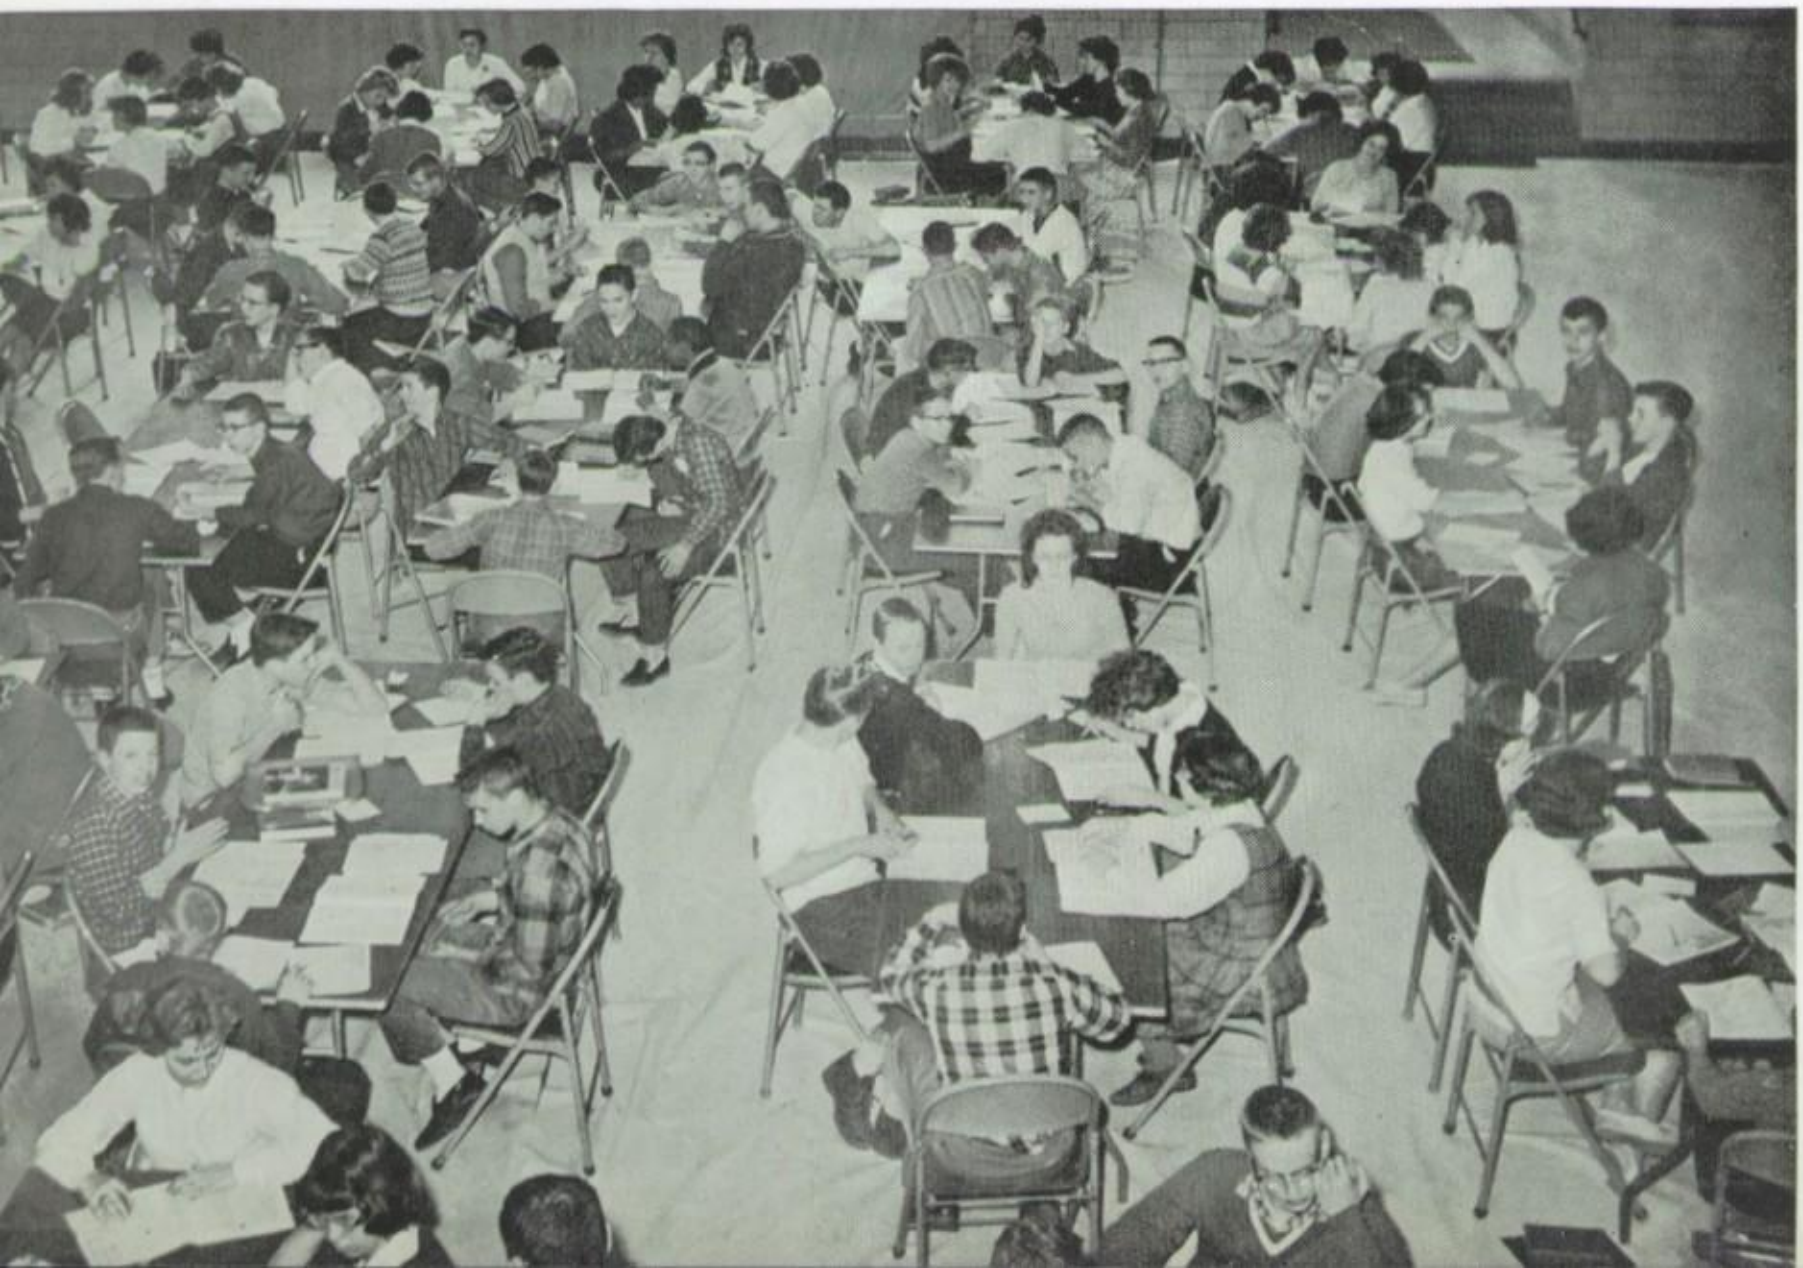
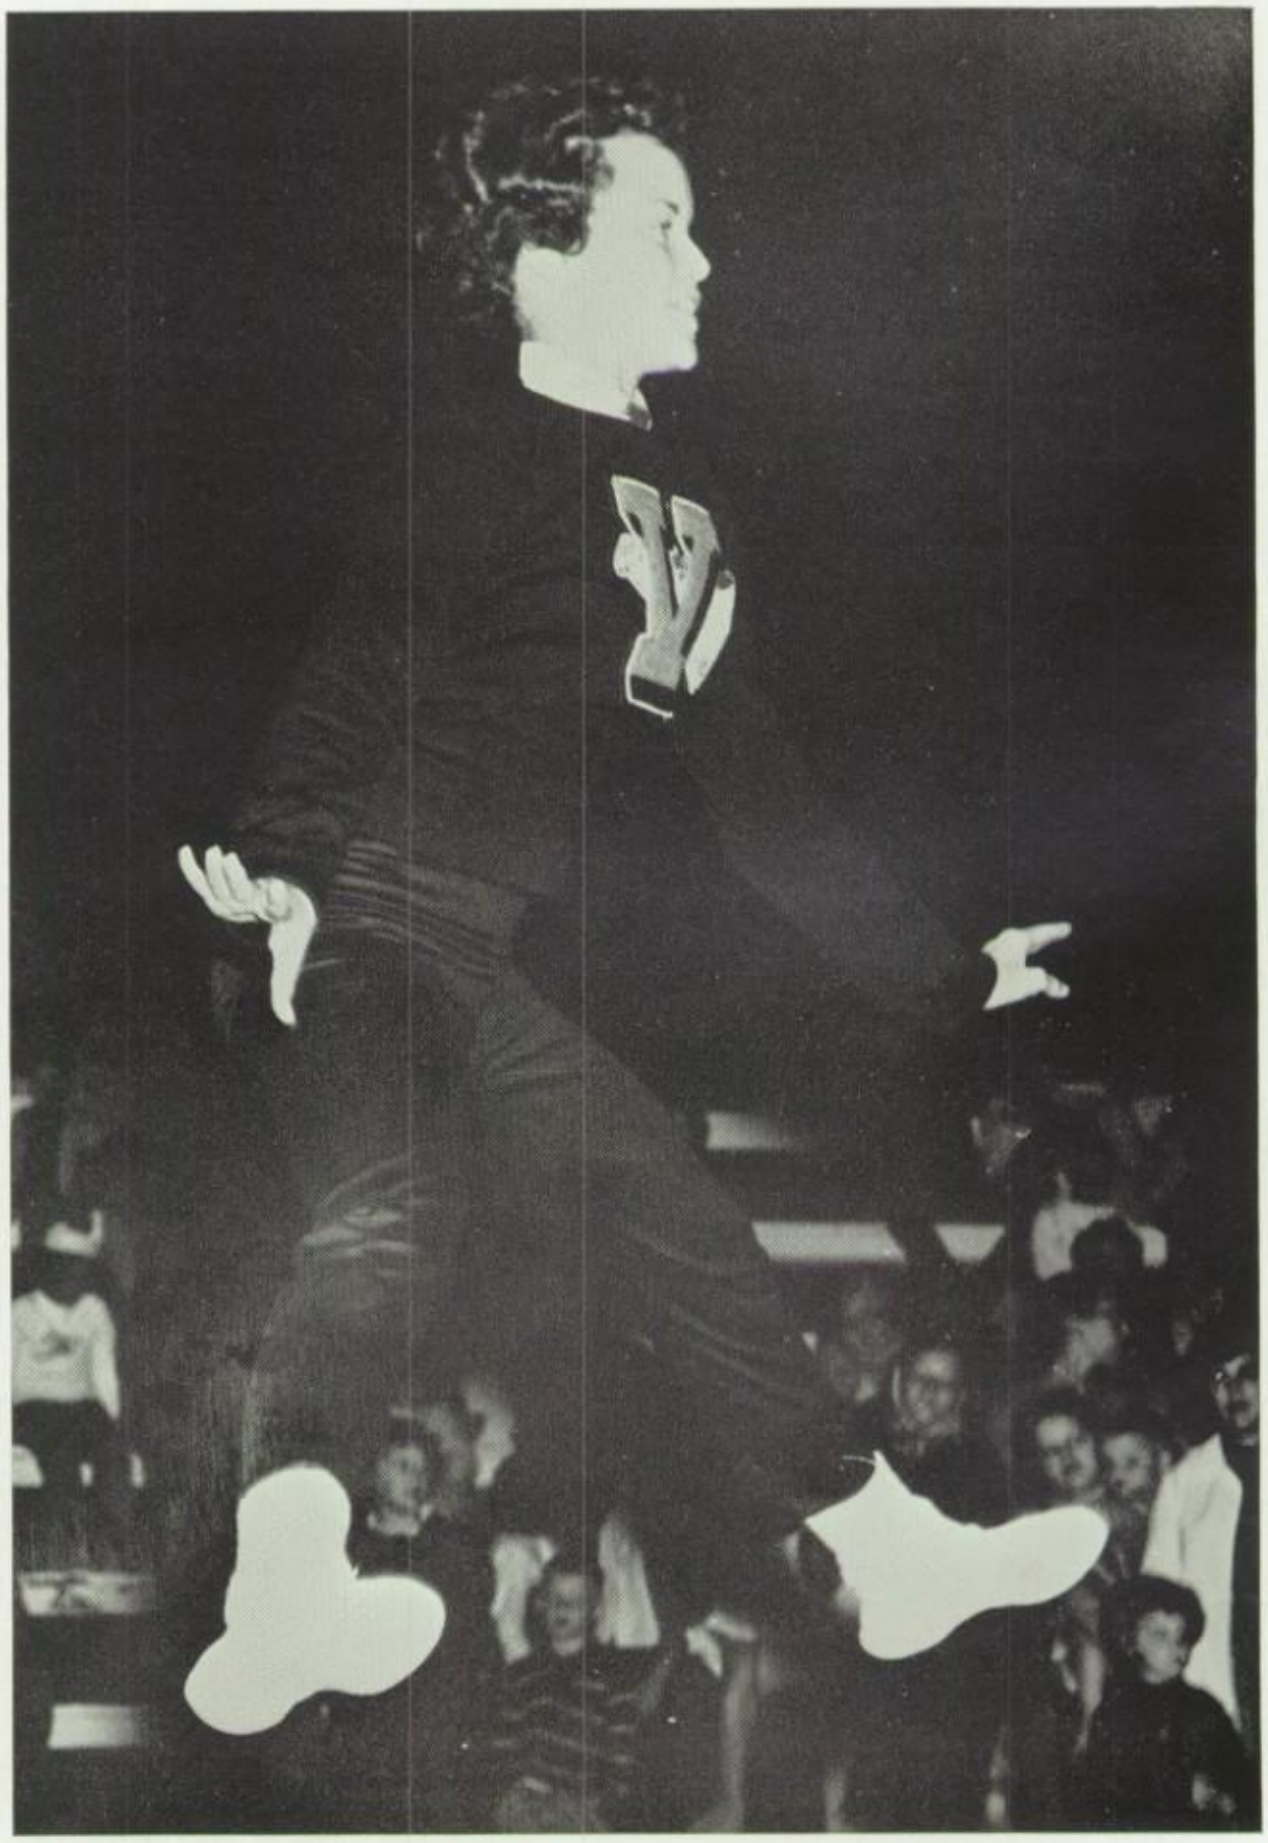
this was our year

Looks as though some of the freshmen are more interested in the camera than in their Iowa Tests.



Upper and lower classmen alike flock to the office to have their schedules changed.

Although we're not all so energetic, this candid of Ginny "Legs" Houbler, a senior cheerleader, is characteristic of our exuberant school spirit.



"My boomerang won't come back!"

Do you suppose Mike Hobbs has finally learned that one isn't supposed to chew gum during school hours? If he hasn't, it isn't the fault of Mr. Walton. He made Mike chew five pieces of bubble gum for punishment, or maybe Mike was trying to break a record.

The library staff provides a valuable service to the school. Here a busy staff member is checking out books for some students, and collecting fines from others.

Last fall, our art department went to Kenyon College, Gambier, to examine the architecture of the Chapel and Peirce Hall. In this picture they are in Rosse Hall viewing works of art on display there, under the direction of Mr. Mitchell Smith, high school art instructor.

The Forum staff had an assembly program in the fall in order to advertise the coming sales campaign. Here we find the staff members trying to put across one idea — buy a Forum.

Senior captain, Tom Todd, tackles Madison ball carrier, with other Jacket help moving in. The Jackets were beaten in this contest, but set a new record for passes completed in a single game.

Becky Ball seems serious about helping students choose tickets for the all school play, "I Remember Mama."

Taking part in a Latin Club skit are Debbie Ward, Joni Clark, June Hall, Paula Mickle, and Lucille Butler. These girls, dressed as Roman lords and servants, were honoring the birthday of the Roman poet, Virgil. As part of the program each participant told something about Virgil's life.

The space flight of Colonel John Glenn was one of the big news events of the year. His flight was followed by students who listened in on the radio broadcast which was carried by the school intercom.

The close-up shot of Colonel Glenn was taken at New Concord by Forum photographer Darrell Gilbert. He made a special trip to New Concord in hopes of getting a picture and got this one from a distance of 30 feet with a telephoto lens.

These students were fortunate enough to watch Colonel Glenn's flight on a television while most of the other students had to listen on radio.

High school disc jockeys, Steve Carter and Darrell Gilbert, spend thirty minutes every Saturday morning playing request records for the enjoyment of high school students. This program is played through the courtesy of the local radio station, WMVO.

records and radio are a part of our daily lives

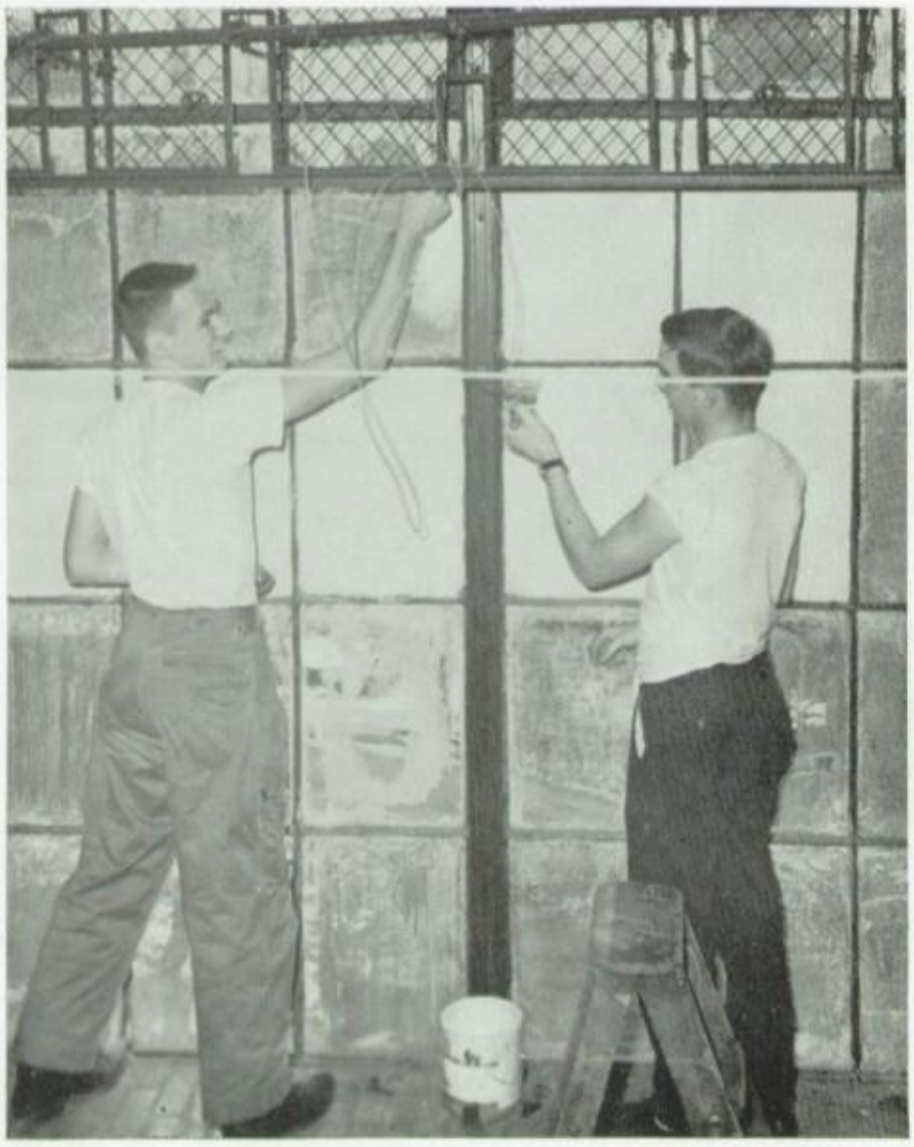
Last fall try-outs were held for school public address announcers. The winners were Leslie Holmes, Jim Cowlin, and Wayne Decker. These students have done a fine job this year and are to be congratulated on their whole tones and clear enunciation.

Mount Vernon fans enthusiastically cheer on the Yellow Jackets to a victory over Columbus South in the first tournament game.

This long line of students, waiting to purchase tickets from Mr. Highman is a familiar sight during football and basketball seasons.

After another hard practice the football players relax as they enjoy the annual pep rally held the night before homecoming at the school baseball diamond.

As Steve Carter announces Pam Hamilton 1962 FORUM Queen, Pam shows surprise while Jane Boyd, Joan Jacobs, and Judy Jacobs applaud.



Doug Rhoades and Bill Stillwagon have been willing workers when it comes to doing work for the school. Here we find them doing some painting in the girls' gym.

This picture may make us all a little reminiscent of many of the days last winter when we were in school and definitely wished that we weren't.

homecoming is gay and colorful

Torches, carried by members of the Pep Club, lighted the way for the entrance of the team at the homecoming game.

Mr. Jack Robeson's biology class.

Mr. Lee Ramey's freshmen English class.

100% subscribers to the jacket journal

Mrs. Imogene Montgomery's French IV people also like to read school news.

Looks as though Caroll Griesmyer has a new boyfriend. Rather slim, isn't he? Caroll volunteered to read each issue of the Jacket Journal to "Steve." His subscription made Mr. Robeson's sixth period biology class a 100% room.

These happy people seem to be enjoying the treats which they won as the prize for being a class to subscribe 100% to the JACKET JOURNAL (naturally everyone subscribed because every member of the JACKET JOURNAL and FORUM staffs are required to buy a subscription to each publication). The delicious cupcakes were baked by Henrietta Lord, another member of the JOURNAL staff.

Elizabeth Daniel and Rosilyn Latham qualified as National Merit Finalists this year. High scores on the National Merit Qualifying Tests and on College Boards were the basis for selection. Carolyn Cassaday, who completed her high school requirements a year early, was a semi-finalist and is now enrolled in Middlebury College in Vermont.

girls' state and boys' state representatives

Girls' State was held at Capital University and Boys' State at Ohio University. The purpose was to have students learn about Ohio government.

todd takes trophy

Tom Todd receives the Captain of the Year award from Principal Max Wiggins. The varsity squad voted Tom the best leader, and the player contributing the most to the football team in 1961.

Pam Hamilton and Harry Bouton were the winners of the Youth Leadership Contest sponsored by the Elks. Each received two $25 defense bonds.

This year's winner of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Contest was Rosilyn Latham. She was presented with a pin and honored at a luncheon at the Alcove. The award is based on the highest score achieved on a history test.

mount vernon high school students take honors in many fields

Three Mount Vernon High School students received recognition in the National Anthology of High School Poetry. They are Rodney Beckett, Evelyn Smith, and Charles Mills.

Senior Virginia Ellis was the fourth place county winner in the State Agricultural and Home Economics Scholarship Test taken November 17th.

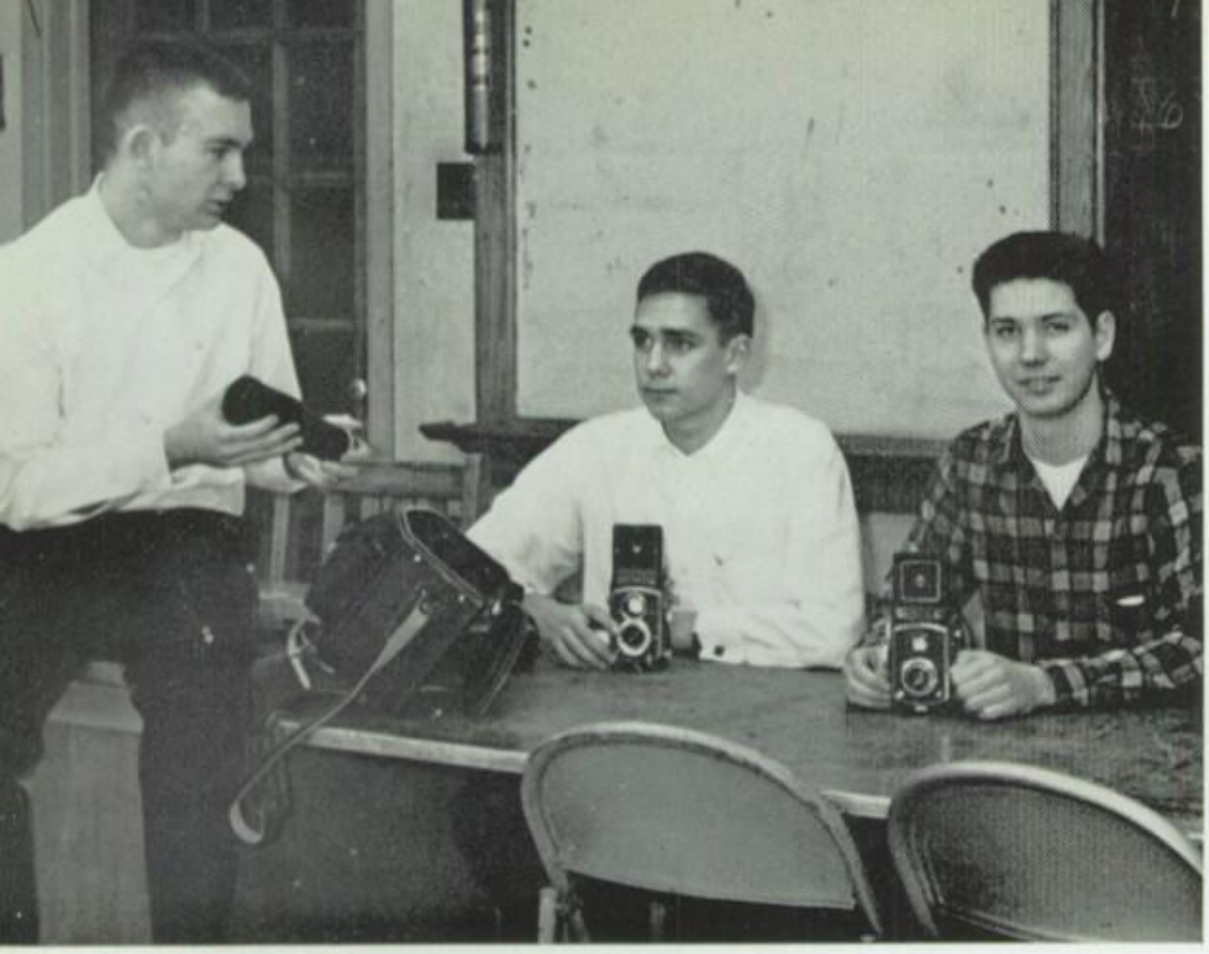
The Betty Crocker Future Homemaker Award was presented to Marilyn James by her adviser Mrs. Lillian White. Her pin represents the theme, "Home Is Where the Heart Is."

She also received a letter of congratulation from Betty Crocker. This test is given annually to all seniors enrolled in Home Economics.

Pete Mondron was the recipient of the Pittsburgh Plate Scholarship, and expects to attend Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Pete is also a member of the 1962 golf team.

Steve Carter, co-editor of The Forum won the Cooper-Bessemer Scholarship and will attend Marietta College.

At the Journalism Association of Ohio Schools convention held November 1961, Darrell Gilbert won second place in photography. Lizbeth Fullemann won second place in a writing contest, and Charlotte McFadden took a third place in the same category.



Darrell Gilbert, Alan Helser, Bruce Alexander.

These three boys have given greatly of their free time and have worked hard so that the photography in this book might be possible. In acknowledgement of all that they have done for the Forum, the rest of the Forum staff wishes to thank them.

these have won thanks

Mr. L. L. Owen presents a pin to Doug Rhoades for outstanding service to the Projection Club. Doug has been a member of this organization for five years in both Junior and Senior High School and has given much of his spare time.

academics

Students in Mrs. Montgomery's French classes enjoy using language aids such as tapes, earphones, and records.

At the front table we see Susan Sturgess and Dave Nicholson doing a whimsical art assignment. They are making pictures by substituting straws for brushes and blowing a painting on paper.

demonstrations of new techniques

Dave Cornell and Dick Byrd are hard at work on their latest art class project — soap carving.

Finding their work not quite so difficult are some office practice students. They even seem to be enjoying their work a little!

jackets have bad season

This year's "Yellow Jackets" lacked both size and experience. Desire seemed to be high in all of the games during the first half, but the team seemed unable to keep high enough to fight through the second half. The small and inexperienced squad lacked confidence and determination. Many of its first stringers were sophomores, and much of the bench was lined with freshmen. The Jackets suffered their worst season. The loss of ten games straight left its mark on Mount Vernon, so next year's squad has its job cut out, and its members are ready to gain revenge for the '61 season's scores. Look out C.B.L.

senior football players

These are the seniors of the 1961 Yellow Jackets football team. The 11 seniors were a great influence in keeping up the team's spirit and fight.

The team's record was a poor one, but the experience gained was not in vain, for next season's Jackets will be back on top and ready to fight for a spot high in the C.B.L. record.

Two members of this year's Yellow Jacket team, "Bump" Omlor and Harold Welsh, were chosen for the all Central Buckeye League honors. "Bump," a three year letterman, was an outstanding player on defense as well as offense. Harold, the brains of the backfield, played as quarterback of the team. Hal and "Bump" set a record for the most passes completed in one game. Along with these two all C.B.L. choices, an honorable mention was given to Bruce Dudgeon, a junior halfback. Bruce earned the praises of Coach Stobart as, "The only man in the Yellow Jacket backfield who wanted to run."

year in intramural sports

The Mount Vernon chapter of the Girls' Athletic Association had a busy year. The Varsity "A" volleyball and basketball teams were again undefeated in their encounters with other teams in this area. The G.A.A. also sponsored an intramural program among its members. At Christmas time the organization supplied a needy family with food, clothing, and toys. Social activities were varied. Mrs. Fred Pond presented a style show for the girls and their mothers. The girls closed the year with a traditional picnic.

The concert band was quite active this year. In the latter part of March, the band members held their annual concert which is given on two nights in succession. Another project consisted of giving a matinee to the students of the Mount Vernon Academy. In the latter part of the spring, the group took part in state contests. They received a high rating for their performance as a group. Mount Vernon High may well be proud of its concert band.

A beautiful lamasery hidden in the Tibetan Mountains was the setting for the Senior Class Play, Lost Horizon. Adapted from the book, by James Hilton, this story tells of a small isolated community with a new type of civilization based on "moderation" and a form of eternal life. The action consists of the reactions of a "civilized" group of people from the United States and England to this form of existence.

Miss Brinklow and Helen watch as Barnard and Mallinson continue their discussion.

was a certain success

Colorful crepe paper in gay profusion helped to carry out the theme of the 1962 Senior Prom. The theme chosen by the prom committee was "Midnight Sun." The Riley Norris Combo played for the dance. Chairman of the prom committee was Glenn Marchal. The after-prom activities consisted of a movie, "Horizontal Lieutenant," and an informal dance and party at the K. of P. Hall. The theme for the informal dance was the "Peppermint Lounge." These activities were followed by a traditional breakfast. Connie Rice was the chairman of the after-prom committee.

You can tell who runs this Junior Class. Maybe the boys outnumber the girls, but you can bet Cheryl will stand up for the feminine views.

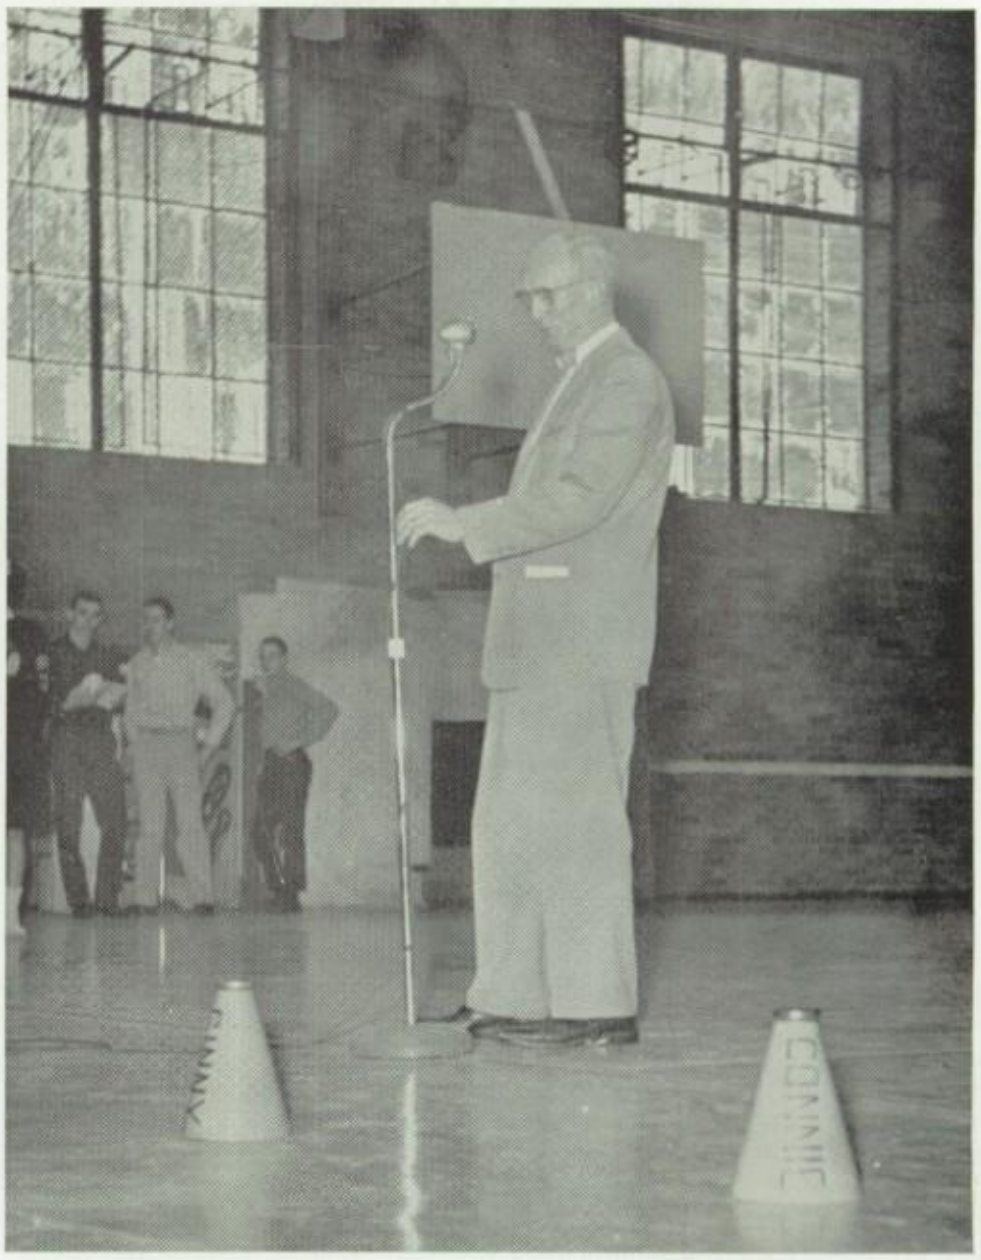
These junior girls are telling everyone just how thankful they are for little boys.

Reading and discussing novels played an important part in the year's work for this class in American Literature. This panel of juniors — Patty Mackin, chairman Jackie Suain, Tom Withgott, Mary McRill, and Carola Adams — discuss The Scarlet Letter by Nathaniel Hawthorne.

juniors are busy people

Juniors Virginia Dudgeon, Susan Sturgess, and Elizabeth Kofod look like real artists as they work with oils.

A friend to every student, Mr. Wiggins is a special friend to juniors who must begin choosing occupations and planning futures.



who must plan for the future

The junior class of 1962 had many industrious projects and plans for earning money. The class held two bake sales downtown for which some of the members kindly consented to parading up and down the street wearing sandwich boards with advertisements on them. The class also sold candy and, as is traditional, brooms. One interesting project that fizzled somewhat like a dud firecracker was the sale of fire extinguishers. After some of the extinguishers had already been sold, they had to be collected because their size was not quite in accordance with a certain city ordinance. From all these projects, one can see that juniors really are busy people, both during and after school.

Dotty seems to be in a big hurry — for an obviously good reason.

Oh! Santa, your whiskers tickle!

When Doctor Denham Sutcliffe lectured the sophomore English classes, he brought with him Mr. and Mrs. Toda, from Japan, who are studying American schools. John McReynolds listens intently to the discussion on Huckleberry Finn.

Sue Vernon, Ronnie Miller, and Jim Thompson lead a panel discussion about Huckleberry Finn for Miss Cannon's sophomore English class.

Tom James, Fred Ballam, and the rest of the class don't appear too interested in the discussion; maybe they have spring fever.

Another panel was held to discuss The Old Man and the Sea by Ernest Hemingway. Ron Woolson, Mary Ann Speelman, Sharon Deem, and John Sutcliffe moderate. John Sutcliffe is holding a picture of Ernest Hemingway.

Miss Cannon's English classes spent a day this year in which one student represented a character from one of the stories, poems, or plays the class had studied. Here Carl Neibarger and Diane Hall are trying to guess who Sharon Wells is portraying.

"The car would run if it had a Cooper-Bessemer engine."

Cooper-Bessemer engines, of course, are much too large to put under the hood of an automobile. They do, however, offer continuous performance under all types of rugged conditions. And so do all of the other products manufactured by Cooper-Bessemer and its subsidiaries. Ask any of the students at Mount Vernon High School who are the sons or daughters of Cooper-Bessemer employees. They'll tell you that their fathers help to build some of the finest engines, compressors, gas turbines and automatic controls in the world.

Mrs. Ralph Harris' daughter, Mollie, wrote the winning entry.

CHERRY PIE CONTEST

George Washington's birthday was celebrated with a cherry pie contest on WMVO — over 1300 listeners entered. A DJ popularity contest was held — Carl Day won — Bill Victor and Dave Nelson demanded a recount! Hot cherry pies were delivered every half-hour to lucky winners throughout the broadcast day.

TEEN TIME, a WMVO service to youth, was presented 10:30 - 12 noon Saturdays. Steve Carter and Darrell Gilbert were DJ's for the first thirty minutes. TEEN TIME featured the latest hit records, dedications, mystery tunes, and guest DJ interviews. NEWS AND VIEWS, with Sally Tanner, Tom Wilson, and Rick Mayhew — the Jacket Journal Radio Editors — presented the latest Mount Vernon High School news at 11:00. SCHOOL FORUM, with students from the city and county schools, was scheduled at 11:30 on TEEN TIME.

LOOKING AHEAD

Today as never before, there is a greater interest on the part of Americans in what the future holds, and how our nation is prepared to meet the demands and challenges ahead.

Electric power will grow with the future and contribute greatly to it. To assure the effective role of electricity in serving the needs of the nation, the electric companies will continue to need capable and well-educated young people to meet the challenge of tomorrow.
